01 Overview

The third-largest Big Four network by revenue, and the one with the most distinctive AI operating model. Truncale, the first woman to lead a Big Four firm, runs a Client Zero approach — EY applies AI to its own processes first, then sells the learnings. Offering: Assurance, tax, consulting, strategy and transactions (through EY-Parthenon), legal and managed services, delivered by member firms. The AI programme runs under the EY All in strategy, with AI-powered solutions, industry alliances and AI governance... 03 Competitive Landscape

Other vendors in this market: Accenture · Aziro · Bain & Company · Booz Allen Hamilton · Boston Consulting Group · Capgemini · Cognizant · Deloitte Where it sits: Client Zero is a genuinely differentiated pitch and the numbers behind it are concrete: more than 100 AI applications deployed internally, over 50,000 AI agents in development, and more than 15,000 EY people working on AI-led client projects.

04 GIP & BlackRock Connections

GIP became a wholly-owned BlackRock subsidiary in October 2024 and now operates as BlackRock's dedicated infrastructure-investment arm. Stakes below are standard institutional/index-fund positions unless otherwise noted.
Entity	Possible connection
Global Infrastructure Partners	No publicly disclosed GIP relationship. Note that EY US selected CrowdStrike's Falcon Next-Gen SIEM as the foundation for its global cybersecurity managed services — relevant if both vendors come up in the same conversation.
BlackRock	No publicly disclosed operating relationship.

05 Sentiment

Customer: Growth of 4.0% with consulting and tax as the primary drivers suggests clients are buying the transformation work rather than only compliance. The weak spot is visible in the segment data: strategy and transactions revenue was flat and its headcount fell... What supports the story • Client Zero gives EY a genuinely differentiated proof point — AI deployed at scale inside a 400,000-person firm before being sold • AI-related revenue grew 30% in FY2025, with over 15,000 people on AI-led client projects • FY20–FY25 compound annual growth of 8.2% — the strongest medium-term record among the Big Four tracked here	What to pressure-test • Growth of 4.0% trails Deloitte's 4.8% and both trail Accenture's 7% • Strategy and transactions was flat on revenue with headcount down 1.8% — the deal-linked business is not recovering • Central structure has been under cost pressure since Project Everest collapsed in 2023; the global assessment has fallen below 3.5% of member firm revenue

Employee: Headcount grew 3.4% overall, but the distribution is telling: consulting up 5.4%, strategy and transactions down 1.8%, and central global headcount reduced under a cost-trimming drive.
